

Ireland
Working collectively to eradicate racism
in Ireland

Are you from a minority ethnic background?
Have you experienced or witnessed racism?
Do you want to do something about it?

COME TO ONE OF OPEN SESSIONS TO FIND OUT MORE:

12:30pm, Saturday, 11th July OR 6:00pm, Tuesday, 14th July
ENAR Ireland, 37 Dame Street, Dublin 2

ENAR Ireland (European Network Against Racism) wants people like you to come together, campaign and take action against racism that affects people every day, using our support. We want to send a clear message that racism has no place in our communities and that our society should be inclusive of all.

Come over to one of our information sessions, bring a friend and see if you want to get involved. We hope to see you there!
